

Lead

Lead - Lead has played an important role in both Colorado's and the nation's history. However, there is no current lead production in Colorado. Because of the concerns regarding human health, lead is used only in select applications in today's society. Several uses for lead include: lead-acid batteries, ammunition, oxides in glass, ceramics, casting, and sheet lead.

Locatable
Minerals

Bureau of Land Management
Royal Gorge Field Office
Canon City, CO
(719) 269-8500